

Currently:

Home » Articles: Business & Parenting, Small Business Reviews » Yoursphere.com is now FREE: social networking for tweens and teens

Yoursphere.com is now FREE: social networking for tweens and teens

April/9/2010

Good news for parents of tweens and teens:
Yoursphere.com is now offering FREE memberships.

Many families are cutting back on anything and everything that is not deemed a necessary bill. Mary Kay, founder of Yoursphere, does not want memberships being passed over because of the $4.95 a month payment. Therefore, families are now encouraged to sign up for free.

This announcement comes at a highly critical time. Many of us are watching and reading about numerous cyber-bullying instances, some having resulted in suicide. With the advancement of technology, children now find more outlets for bully behavior:

- Social networking sites
- Texting
- Sexting
- Online forums
- Online games
- Online chat rooms

Mary Kay had a vision – a social networking site that offered ultimate safety including background checks on those signing up. Yoursphere.com was built by teens...for teens...and offers a safe social networking harbor for children seeking online connections.

Many parenting and teen experts encourage parents to say NO to a facebook or MySpace account (among others), where safety is limited and predators reign. You won't find predators hanging around at Yoursphere.com. Mary Kay and her staff have made sure of that.

Come join with your tweens and/or teens. Encourage your kid's friends to join, also, for a safe social networking experience that will foster your child's creativity without leaving them open to written attacks, cyber-bullying or predator slime.

In the Know:

Mary Kay and Yoursphere.com have been featured on ABC, CNN, NBC, FOX and more.

Mary Kay's son at the Performing Arts School in the Bronx, NY. Explaining Yoursphere.com to the children.
February, 2010